

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Richards' Cases on Corporations

By HARRY S. RICHARDS

Dean of the University of Wisconsin Law School.

This important addition to the American Casebook Series will be published in November, 1912. All law school professors and others interested in teaching the subject of Private Corporations should examine this Casebook.

Cases on Marriage and Divorce

By CHESTER G. VERNIER

Professor of Law, University of Illinois.

This collection of cases consists of 180 pages of text matter. It has been prepared to supplement Kales' Cases on Persons, and is published as a separate book selling at $1.50 per copy. A combination rate of $4.50 is made on Kales' Cases on Persons and Vernier's Supplement on Marriage and Divorce when bound together in one book.

ABRIDGED EDITION OF MIKELL'S

Cases on Criminal Procedure

This Abridged Edition of Mr. Mikell's Casebook on Criminal Procedure, published in the American Casebook Series, consists of about 200 pages of printed matter. It is a clear and concise exposition of the law of Criminal Procedure in Casebook form of convenient size for use in law schools where only a limited amount of time can be devoted to the subject. Price, $2.00.

Cooley's Cases on Insurance

(A companion book to Vance on Insurance.)

By ROGER W. COOLEY

Professor of Law, University of North Dakota.

This is the first volume to be published in the Illustrative Casebook Series, to accompany the various volumes of the Hornbook Series, to be used in connection with the Hornbooks for instruction in the classroom. The text-book sets forth in a clear and concise manner the principles of the subject; the Casebook shows how these principles have been applied by the courts and embodied in the case law. Unlike Casebooks prepared for the "Case Method" of instruction, no attempt has been made to supply a comprehensive knowledge of the subject from the cases alone. It should be remembered that the basis of the instruction is the text-book, and that the purpose of these Casebooks is to illustrate the practical application of the principles of the law. 480 pages. Price, $2.50.

West Publishing Company

St. Paul, Minn.